Chicago Police Hunt New Clues For Girl's Slayer

Several Quizzed In Connection With Kidnap-Slaying Are Released

CASE BAFFLING CHICAGO OFFICERS

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Chicago police began a new search today for clues and evidence that might lead to the apprehension of the vicious kidnaper-slayer of 6-year-old Suzanne Degnan.

Still held in custody of the nearly dozen persons questioned about the brutal crime was a crippled former dentist who once was a patient in an Illinois state hospital for mental patients.

Further Questioning

Police said the man would be submitted to further routine questioning, but they did not believe anything tangible would be found to implicate him in the kidnapping and mutilation of the child's body.

Ladder Is Factor

The man was brought into the investigation when a ladder believed used by the kidnaper early last Monday was identified as one stolen from a nursery home not far from the James E. Deegan home.

The girl was carried out a window of her bedroom.

Police were directed to the dentist by Mrs. Margaret Perry, operator of the nursery, who said he was once employed by her as a handyman after his discharge from the state hospital.

Police started their new search of the neighborhood and a review of all angles of the case after two apartment house janitors held for questioning were given their freedom late yesterday on writs of habeas corpus because of insufficient evidence.

Released From Custody

They are Hector Verburch, 65, janitor of the building in which police found a laundry room where the little girl was hacked to pieces.

RETURN THROUGH CANAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(INS)—More than 7,500 American troops will arrive in New York about Feb. 3 aboard the huge passenger liner "West Point" after voyaging from Manila by way of the Panama canal.

The war department said that this would be the first routing of a large ship from the Pacific through the canal.

Shipment of troops scheduled for discharge at eastern personnel centers direct to east coast ports would relieve pressure on railroads which have been unable to accomplish prompt movement of all troops on the west coast, the army said.

Settlement Hope Still Persists In Steel Strike Crisis

Negotiators Mum As They Prepare To Resume Parley This Afternoon

COMPROMISE IS NOW POSSIBILITY

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Hope for settlement of the steel wage dispute, despite the imminence of a nationwide strike scheduled for Monday, persisted today as industry and union leaders continued to seek a way out of the crisis.

The negotiators, led by Philip Murray, president of the CIO and its United Steelworkers affiliate, and President Benjamin F. Fairless of U. S. Steel, remained mum as they prepared to resume negotiations in New York at 2 p. m. today.

Hope For Compromise

Despite their silence, however, a last-minute compromise on the wage question appeared likely, in view of the government's lifting of the steel price ceiling by $4 a ton.

The presidential fact-finding board's recommendation of a 17 1/2 per cent wage increase in the General Motors automotive dispute also was expected to affect the steel negotiations.

Observers believed peaceful settlement of the steel dispute might point the way for agreements in the electrical, packinghouse and other industries now strike-ridden or threatened with strikes.

The steel negotiators were revived yesterday, ending a three-month stalemate over the union's demand for a $2 a day wage increase.

Attlee Opens United Nations Assembly On Blunt Note

Never in time of peace has any world statesman uttered such a grim warning as Britain's Prime Minister Clement Attlee presented to the initial session of the United Nations general assembly in London. He is pictured, above, telling UNO delegates that "the teeming millions of humanity you represent have just one choice—life in peace, concord and progress or death in the vanishing fragments of atomic bombs. It is up to you to make their choice between life and death."

CENTRAL HALL, London, Jan. 11.—The general assembly of the United Nations organization moved to broaden its general committee today to give smaller nations a greater voice in broad UNO policies.

Gen. Eisenhower May Be Summoned

Congressional Leaders Formulate Plans To Seek Explanation Of Army Demobilization

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Congressional leaders were formulating a plan today to summon Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower before a joint session of the House and Senate for an explanation of demobilization delays.

The army chief of staff may appear before Congress Tuesday if Senate Majority Leader Barkley and House Speaker Rayburn approve or if the army formally requests the meeting.

The joint session would be similar to one held last fall when Gen. George C. Marshall quelled a growing congressional clamor over army discharge plans by addressing its members at an informal meeting in the Library of Congress.

Outline Situation

Advocates of the proposed meeting declare it would give Eisenhower the best possible sounding board to outline realities of the world military situation.

Eisenhower's talk would be designed to take the steam out of soldier demonstrations in Europe and the Pacific, and to ease the pressure on congressmen for legislation to hasten the discharge program.

If the joint session plan fails to materialize, the general is expected to appear before House and Senate committees to reinforce them of reasons for delaying the homeward movement of American troops.

Action Awaited On Proposal In Long GM Strike

Government Wage Compromise Is Put Forward By Fact-Finding Board

RAISE HOPES FOR LABOR CRISIS BREAK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(INS)—A government wage compromise put forward in the 51-day-old General Motors strike raised hopes today for a "break" in the reconversion labor crisis.

Administration officials anxiously awaited action by GM and the CIO Auto Workers union on a fact-finding board's proposal that they settle their dispute for little over half the UAW's original demand.

Increases Recommended

The three man panel recommended a 17 1/2 per cent wage increase for nearly 200,000 strikers. The union had asked for a 30 per cent boost, while General Motors offered 10.

The board said the company should grant a general wage increase of 18 1/2 cents an hour. Its present average rate is $1.12 an hour, according to the UAW.

Union leaders promptly hailed the panel's findings that GM could meet the recommendation without higher car prices as "a smashing victory for the union on the price front."

UAW Vice President Walter Reuther challenged the board's assumption, however, that 1946 production levels would not exceed 41 output on which the wage compromise was based. He predicted this year's production would exceed 1941, high-est peacetime year.

To Act Tomorrow

The union's executive committee is scheduled to act on the fact-finding report in Detroit tomorrow with a final decision up to 200 UAW delegates to the national GM conference there on Sunday.

General Motors representatives withheld comment on the report until it has been thoroughly analyzed.

President Truman termed the report "a thorough and reasoned document." He said it would "commend itself to the good judgement of the American public." The President added:

"I sincerely hope that the parties will follow the recommendations and bring about a speedy end to this most costly conflict."

Would Clear Skies

"I am satisfied that if such a settlement is made, the industrial skies will rapidly clear and America (Continued on Page Two)

On Nov. 28, 1939—two months after England went to war with Germany—the charter was brought to the library of Congress for safe-keeping.

Immediate action or comment on the acceptance of the Cuban proposal.

This move came after the Soviets protested sharply against the procedure used in electing Belgium's Paul-Henri Spaak as president of the assembly.

Procedure Violation

Foreign Commissar Dmitri Manuilsky of the Ukrainian delegation complained that Spaak's election, without nomination, was a violation of Democratic procedure.

Manuilsky apparently spoke for the entire Soviet delegation.

He declared:

"Lie was nominated, Spaak was not nominated, but was elected president by a vote of 28 to 23—a division which impairs the dignity of the assembly."

Before he spoke, Cuban Delegate Guy Perez Cisneros proposed that the UNO general committee be enlarged from 14 to 51 nations so that each country, large and small, might have a voice in determining the matters the assembly shall consider.

Cisneros' proposal was made repeatedly before the preparatory commission of the UNO and supported by many Latin American countries plus the Arab states.

Second Day Opens

The proposal was defeated by the big powers which remained convinced that the general committee must be kept small for the sake of efficiency.

Paul-Henri Spaak, president of the general assembly, opened the second day of deliberations with a speech to the delegates.

Spaak declared that the British delegation was seeking to prevent the conference hall from becoming the scene of frequent tests of strength with Russia.

The British appeared determined to make a behind-the-scenes agreement among the Big Five on the six small powers to be elected as permanent members of the UNO security council.

It was feared that this issue might provide the next big conference hall clash unless an informal agreement were reached before the matter came up for consideration by the general assembly.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Dr. D. Z. Manuilsky, Ukrainian people's Commissar for Foreign Affairs, today was unanimously elected chairman of the Political Security committee of the United Nations organization.

the exception of Boston and Cincinnati was affected. The announcement by the A. T. & T. was made in New York three hours after the picket lines had been established.

Telephone service at the White House and other important government offices was tied up by the strike, which was called over what the union termed a protest against working conditions and accumulated grievances.

Long distance service was the first to suffer. Union officials estimated that at least 85 per cent of the toll service and much of the manual operations were affected when the workers refused to cross picket lines.

Dial Systems Operate

Dial systems, however, continued to operate, but union officials said these operations would be crippled because of the lack of maintenance.

In New York, few workers were reported to have crossed the picket line thrown around the main office of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, the nerve center of communications in the eastern metropolis.

Pickets were established at the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company in Washington where service already had been disrupted by a strike of 3,000 operators.

New England telephone service, however, was not affected materially. Union officials there said the operators would continue on the job despite the picket lines.

Long distance communications out of Philadelphia were paralyzed while "premature" picket lines threatened to tie up toll calls completely in Detroit.

Many famous men have been one-eyed during their greatest periods of success.

Gratifying News

It is gratifying to hear from the Provost Marshal General's office in Washington that all Japanese prisoners of war in the United States will have been shipped out by January 15 and all German and Italian prisoners by April 30. It goes without saying that these "guests" have not worn out their welcome, for the simple reason that they never were welcome but merely tolerated as a wartime necessity.

The Army's punctilious attention to provisioning them up to the standard stipulated by the Geneva Convention caused widespread protest while the American public was bearing with the restraints of various food shortages. The prisoners were brought to this country as a matter of military expediency, being less troublesome here than they might have been in concentrations behind the various battlefronts. With the war over, the United States has no interest in them as labor units for reparations, however much such a policy may be favored by Russia and a few Allied countries.

A few thousand Japanese prisoners will be detoured to Hawaii for assignment to labor battalions under the Hawaiian military commander. This is merely a matter of using them for leftover war tasks. Axis prisoners have been kept in this country after the war because of the shortage of shipping facilities for the return of American troops and requirements of outgoing supplies. That situation gradually is being relieved and, if the plans of the Provost Marshal General's office go through, the nation shall be well rid of all remaining war prisoners within four months.

Not The R.A.F.

Now that war press censorship has been largely lifted, war correspondents are telling their censorship stories. They obeyed the rules, but sometimes the rules were hard to understand. In his book, "The World Is Their Beat," J. C. Oestreicher, I.N.S. foreign editor, explains the mystery of the Irish brick.

The story, which the British censor killed, was that an Irish bombardier in the Royal Air Force carried on each mission a brick tied in green ribbon. After he had released his bomb load, with devastating effect, on a German city, he would drop the brick with a prayer that it might conk Goebbels or Hitler. American correspondents thought that the story had an element of humor in it which might afford a warm weary world a moment of relief, but the London censor killed the yarn.

In due time the official responsible for the suppression made his explanation to the protesting American correspondent. "Why my dear fellow, old boy," he said, "you must surely understand that the Royal Air Force does not—simply does not—throw things."

The correspondent was relieved to know that he was not accused of trying to give aid and comfort to the enemy, but he still fails to see the difference between throwing a blockbuster bomb and throwing a brick.

The late war may yet produce further evidence to show that men do not apply for a job as censor—the job must be thrust upon them.

Relief Grows

Payments for various forms of relief in Pennsylvania show considerable increase during the last two months.

The severe weather conditions in the state may be given as one cause for the increased expenditures by the state treasury, and reduced earnings are another.

Many persons who were gainfully employed during the war period now find themselves caught between reconversion and the prospects of work in civilian activities.

There are many others who will not find employment in peacetime work, because of their age or other reasons that render them unfit for such duties.

Many men and women who had retired from industrial work returned in order to do war work, and the four years added to the lives of such persons disqualify most of them for civilian work.

'Rags To Riches'

The rags to riches adage was never better illustrated in a shorter period of time than by the rapid improvement in the gasoline supply. A few months ago the average motorist was counting his coupons and budgeting his miles. A few knew a man who knew a man who could get them more gasoline on the side, but the great majority found their gasoline supply woefully inadequate.

Now leaders of the petroleum industry report a tremendous build-up of civilian stocks of gasoline. These stocks stand at 90,000,000 barrels. If refinery runs continue at the present rate through the winter to meet the kerosene and heating oil demands, early spring may find the industry with 135,000,000 barrels of gasoline on hand. Storage facilities for that amount of gasoline are not available. It may be necessary to curtail oil production until motor car production gets under way and creates an increased demand for gasoline.

The brave new world is presumed to have arrived. Closed factories surrounded by pickets seems to be the greatest change.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN
(Distributed By International News Service)

Our businessmen are carrying a smudge pot and a blanket to their offices today to puff out answers to important correspondence and there is a man trying to get on the "Hall of Fame" program on the ground that he is still working.

That is not to say that everybody is on strike but when a fellow calls up his girl and says "Hoy about going out tonight?" And she says "Oh, we all went out today!" You can see the way our thoughts are running.

One little old lady went into a hardware store to price fencing. The clerk said "Would you like a fence with pickets?" She said "Does anybody else have any other way now?"

I know I've talked about strikes before but a flood remains news until the rowboats are out of the parlor.

In London, the chief delegate from Russia could not attend the opening session of the United Nations organization. He was called home to attend the continuing session of the Moscow organization.

But his absence is not to be construed as an indication that there has been any change for the worse... or the better. Things remain status quo.

We will keep you in touch with the details. And if the wires go down leave the key under the front door mat.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by MARQUIS CHILDS

Steel Crisis Tough

Problem For Truman

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—If

President Truman's speech made any change in the political situation, it is certainly not visible here.

Perhaps back home members of Congress have been talked to. But the few who have come back early for the session which begins on Monday report that they could detect little change in the political temperature after the speech of a week ago.

This apathy—the failure to rally to the President's program—is undoubtedly one reason why the President and his advisers have worked so hard behind the scenes to reach a compromise settlement of the threatened steel strike. Ignoring for a moment what it might do to the country, a prolonged siege on the labor-management front would be disastrous politically for the man in the White House.

It probably would bring Congress to the boiling point so that legislation which would be construed by the unions as "anti-labor" would be passed in spite of all the administration could do. Business and the public generally would be angered. With the congressional elections coming up in November, this would be a pretty mess that could easily spell defeat.

Factors Weighed

These factors have been weighed in the White House scales. On the other side of the balance it has been necessary to consider how far it would be possible to go in granting a steel price increase to offset a wage increase.

It is a cruel decision to have to make. Any really substantial price increase, which will be reflected almost at once throughout the entire price structure, would tend to push up the inflationary curve.

And the repercussions politically on certain groups—those living on fixed incomes, the whole bracket of civil servants and so on—would be serious.

Altogether this has been perhaps the toughest situation that the President has yet had to face. It has been complicated by the fact that an influential group within management apparently would like to have a showdown fight with the unions. They apparently have no fear of the economic and social consequences and perhaps they would even welcome the political results.

The latest evidence is the extraordinary document published as an advertisement in newspapers around the country by an organization calling itself the Society of Sentinels.

Stripped of its rhetoric, the program of the Society of Sentinels proposes to erase all the social legislation of the New Deal era, including the basis for collective bargaining established in the Wagner Act.

Orderly Bargaining

A vice chairman of the Society of

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 5:14. Sun rises tomorrow 7:03.

Very often terrible looking pies really taste good.

A local gal said she was crazy to have a husband. Her boy friend said "How about me?" She said she was not that crazy.

We never hear a man announcing the date of his coming marriage.

McKee plans now for a garden next summer. You sure will need it.

PERT AND PERTINENT

"Back in the good old days it was a coach and four—Lecturer. Now, it's a 'coach and eleven'."

"Another cause for marital difficulties is too much proximity."

Judge of Court of Domestic Relations. Or, not enough.

"The world owes every man a living."

"Labor agitator. Provided he has the reputation to get out of bed in the morning and keeps reasonably active during working hours."

Do not chastise Willie for scribbling naughty words on the wash-room wall.—Child psychologists.

He may grow up to be an author or a "best seller."

What is good for one may not be good for all.

Hire competent men if you want to keep the payroll down.

Being loyal to your boss is a sure way of getting more wages.

When you explain things to others you also make it plain to yourself.

Majority rule? When minorities ride the wrong horse they become minorities. Then, someone organizes a team and they form a "block" to persuade congress to enact the laws that congress knows the majority do not want!

Anything that doesn't appeal to your common sense is a good thing to leave alone.

What others tell you amounts to little but what you experience yourself amounts to a great deal.

Hez Heck says "Whur I live some of our 'ole man' citizens hev so much intelligence that they ain't got no sense."

The OPA—which has put a ceiling on everything—would be far more popular nationally if, instead of a ceiling, they would give more attention to helping several hundred thousand people get a roof.

Some folks have such a good memory that they can't forget the things that are not worth knowing.

Evidently we live in a world of information. You can get more information nowadays, such as it is, than you know what to do with.

It is well to understand that "How are you today" is a greeting, not a question.

Only those who have really suffered are capable of deep sympathy and understanding.

What People Say

(By International News Service)

LONDON—King George VI tells

UNO delegates: "It is in your hands to make or mar the happiness of millions of your fellowmen and millions yet unborn."

DETROIT—Henry Ford, II, president of the Ford Motor company:

"There is no reason why a union grievance case should not be handled the same dispatch as a claim for insurance benefits; why a union contract could not be written and agreed upon with the same efficiency and good temper that marks negotiations of a commercial contract between two companies."

WASHINGTON—Senator Kenneth R. Wherry (R-Nebraska) following a visit to Germany: "The most troublesome problem in Germany is not youth. There you have the case of organized delinquency."

WASHINGTON—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, in a report to President Truman on GI demonstrations in the Philippines: "These men are good men who have performed magnificently under campaign conditions, and inherently are not challenging discipline or authority."

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

As you probably know, New York's taxi drivers love to keep up conversations with their passengers while they take them to their destinations.

Don't let it worry you if your cabbie turns his back to the road while he is going along and looking at you instead. Nothing will happen to you—he knows his way by heart. And of all the philosophers I have ever met, Manhattan's jehus are better than any of them.

I had one of them today. He was telling me all about the people he takes around apartment hunting and about the outrageously high rents they are asked to pay when there happens to be a vacancy. "I don't get those people at all," he said. "All they want is change. If they are in Detroit they want to be in New York, and when they come to New York they want to go someplace else."

"Now me and my wife, we are different. For fourteen years we have lived in a flat way out in the Bronx. It has four nice rooms with a lot of sunshine, and we pay $44 a month for it."

"Fourteen years is a long time in one place and the wife and I got kind of tired of it. But we knew we couldn't get another place so we asked our landlord to repaint the apartment."

"He's a pretty good scout, so he did repaint it."

"We had blue walls in the bedroom and old rose in the parlor."

"So to give us a change, he painted the bedroom old rose and the parlor old rose and you have no idea what a difference it makes."

"It's just like living in a brand-new home and my wife is tickled pink, and doing all kinds of things with new curtains and new bedspreads, and I hope we'll stay where we are another fourteen years."

By this time I had arrived at the office and said goodbye to the cabbie.

But when at lunch I met a friend who is apartment hunting and can't find a place at $300 a month, I thought about the driver.

We all like change, and no matter what we have, most of us want something else.

So when spring comes and you too may get that wanderlust, why don't you try what the cabbie did?

Take a paintpot and go some redecorating—or get your landlord to do it. It won't cost much and it needn't be much of a change.

But you'll be surprised how a bit of paint, a few new curtains and maybe only moving the furniture around a bit will help you.

And while you're at it, why don't you take a broom and sweep a few of the cobwebs out of your head?

Minds, too, need redecorating occasionally.

The Parent Problem

Nationalization Of Industry Meets U. S. Opposition

Loan To Poland To Be Held Up
Pending Action On Industrial Moves

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(INS)—The state department today was on the move to protect American interests abroad wherever and however they may be threatened with loss by the increasing wave of industrial nationalization.

The department's viewpoint was made clear in a protest lodged by Ambassador to Warsaw Arthur Bliss Lane with the Polish government over its recent nationalization decrees. Lane reported to the department that he had vigorously objected to the nationalization insofar as it affected American-owned properties since it was done before the owners had a chance to inventory them.

Backs Up Protest
Lane backed up his protest with the threat that he would oppose the issuance of any U. S. loans to Poland until the situation is corrected.

United States policy in this case was said to be a general precedent for similar situations. As outlined by a state department spokesman, it is this:

The United States has no objection to nationalization of any property by any government. This is within the power of any sovereign state. But, when American-owned property is involved, the owners must be fairly reimbursed. Moreover, as in the case of Poland, they must be consulted and allowed to know which of their pre-war holdings are still in existence and their present value.

The last named condition was said to be especially important in war ravaged countries where the properties may or may not have been bombed out.

Advance Reason For Cigarette Shortage

Shortage Last Year Due To Vast Quantity Moved To Armed Forces Of Nation

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(INS)—The Federal Trade Commission reported today that last year's cigarette shortage was directly attributable to the volume of smokes moving to the armed forces and the Allies.

The commission in its report to Congress for the fiscal year 1944-45 noted that hoarding, "tie-in" selling and other undesirable practices resulted from the shortage.

During the fiscal year the commission issued 164 formal complaints, 112 of which charged false and misleading advertising, covering a wide variety of products.

In its survey of radio and periodical advertising the commission directed attention principally to false advertising of food, drugs, cosmetics and rationed commodities.

Mario Letizia Ramolino Bonaparte, mother of Napoleon, lived to see the rise and fall of family power and is said to have met them with equanimity and dignity.

Argentine Capital Returns To Normal

Buenos Aires, Jan. 11.—(INS)—The Argentine capital was quiet today after election clashes yesterday claimed two lives in friction between supporters of Strong Man Juan Peron and democratic factions. An alleged campaign of terror being carried out by Peronist factions was blamed for letters threatening death which were received by Democratic Vice-Presidential Candidate Enrique Mosca.

Buenos Aires was gripped by a general strike while the political clashes took place.

The first American colonists in Jamestown, Va., used glass beads as currency.

V.F.W. Acts To Retain Deshon As Veteran Hospital

Tri-County Council Delegates Criticize V.A. For Failure To Take Over Hospital

Tri-County Council, Veterans of Foreign Wars, meeting in Butler on Thursday, voted unanimously to petition Congress and the Veterans' Administration for reconsideration of the scheduled closing on April 30 of the Army General Hospital at Butler. The meeting represented all V.F.W. posts in Lawrence, Mercer, and Butler counties, with a total membership of over 5,000 overseas veterans.

At the present time, the council pointed out, a critical shortage of beds at Aspinwall Veterans' hospital makes it necessary for many veterans requiring medical treatment to use local facilities.

In an address this evening at 6:15, George E. Hunt, quartermaster of Neshannock post 315, V.F.W., will explain the situation as it exists at Butler, and will voice an appeal for public support of the V.F.W.'s efforts to keep Deshon hospital as a veteran facility.

Traffic Offenses Are Low For City

on the simple principle that the child does his own eating and eats best when he is hungriest. I discuss the whole matter at length in my bulletin, "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Correction," to be had in a stamped envelope by addressing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y., enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope. Just a few high spots here:

1. Say not a word to the youngster about his eating.
 2. Keep not only from showing concern or vexation at his dawdling over food or refusing it, but also have no such emotions, no stirrings in your insides, victory of self-discipline.

3. Practically every child two or older can feed himself. Don't push food into him. Refuse to feed him.

4. On the slightest sign of poor appetite, serve child only one food at a time and so little of it as scarcely to be visible, choosing first the most essential food.

5. Always let the child choose whether to eat the food offered him or not, but if he chooses not to eat it with reasonable promptness, end the meal there. Should he hold out for more than three or four successive meals, or develop nausea, consult your physician. Stick to the plan for at least a month before you try to evaluate. Many mothers will give up in less than a day.

6. If you are sure you can't "let the poor child go hungry," work only on yourself, on ways to fasten your tongue and still your insides.

Western Union Strike Confined To New York City

The strike of A. C. A. (C.I.O.) telegraph workers is confined to greater New York City, it was stated today by Gladys W. Baker, manager of the Western Union Telegraph company here.

"The local effect of the strike is that telegrams to and from New York City are subject to indefinite delay," she said.

Mrs. Baker said "Telegraph traffic to and from all other points in the United States is moving at normal speed."

"Cable and radio traffic to European and South America points, normally handled through the New York gateway has been interrupted as a result of the New York strike."

MASS MEETING

ROBERT GILMOUR LETOURNEAU, founder and president of four great industrial plants in the United States, and one in Australia, is commonly known as one of "America's Leading Christian Laymen." He invents and manufactures over fifty per cent of all the world's earth-moving machinery now being used to revolutionize the building of highways, dams, airports, and army cantonments, and at the same time gives unstintingly of his time to the furtherance of the Gospel and has endowed the world's largest exclusively religious foundation with 99.7 per cent of his wealth. At present he devotes ninety per cent of his income to promote Christian pursuits.

Mr. Letourneau attributes to God his phenomenal rise from the obscurity of a "one-tool" garage mechanic to the operator of a five-factory corporation doing a yearly business of over twenty-million dollars, and employing about eight thousand people.

He travels approximately twenty thousand miles a month in the operation of his industrial plants, and at the same time filling engagements telling the amazing story of what God has done for him spiritually and materially. This is your opportunity to hear him. Robert Gilmour Letourneau is a dynamic speaker. He will give you something you will never forget. D. The Hodgees were charged with harboring the Nazis and aiding their escape to Philadelphia where their son, Charles R. Hodge, provided them with altered selective service cards. Anna—Sue Russell, Gholson's daughter, was indicted for abetting the prisoners by providing disguises. The Germans were captured in September.

No hearings will be held until next week, according to U. S. Attorney Frederick V. Folmer.

Military Bands In Deploable State

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Edwin Franko Goldman, noted bank leader, today injected a sour note into army affairs.

Recently returned from a tour of Japan and the Philippines, he complained that U. S. military bands are "in a deplorable state" and greatly inferior to those of foreign countries.

In a report to President Truman, Gen. Eisenhower and other brass-hats, Goldman said he found bandmen who couldn't read music while competent musicians were driving army trucks.

Queen Elizabeth of England first introduced sugar into her domestic household as an article of diet in the middle of the 16th century. Prior to that time, the limited amount produced was mainly used for medicinal purposes.

UNO Group Visits Hyde Park Estate

Representatives Make Dramatic Inspection Tour Of Possible UNO Home

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Jan. 11.—(INS)—The site inspection committee of the United Nations Organization paid a dramatic visit Thursday to the home in life and death of Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

In the hushed study of the late President at Hyde Park, where many of the first plans for international organizations were born, the visiting delegates heard a broadcast of the opening session of the UNO general assembly in London.

Then, the delegates visited the Roosevelt grave in the rose garden of his estate. Each of the seven UNO representatives laid two wreaths on the grave as tributes by his country. Then each stepped up quietly and deposited one red rose as a personal sign of respect.

The traditional Roosevelt luck where weather is concerned held true. The delegates were greeted with rain and cold in inspecting the west side of the Hudson river yesterday for a possible permanent home of the UNO.

Coming across the river to the Roosevelt home, they found the weather sunny, clear and warm.

Before the wreath-laying ceremony, the delegates held a brief executive meeting in Mr. Roosevelt's study, at which various experts discussed and answered questions concerning sites inspected today.

It was learned that private interests have offered $200,000 for the Archibald Rogers estate, which adjoins the Roosevelt property, but the government is delaying action to see what choice the UNO makes.

The delegates also visited Alumni House at Vassar college, where Vassar President Henry N. McCracken explained the facilities of the college that could be made available to the UNO.

As far as an air field is concerned, the delegates appeared satisfied that Stuart Field at West Point could do as a temporary airport for the UNO settles in Hyde Park.

Refugees Tell Of Nazi Brutality

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Refugees arriving from war-torn Europe aboard Portuguese ships related to relatives waiting at the docks in Philadelphia stories of Nazi brutality inflicted on prisoners in concentration camps.

Mrs. Yeltrude Rosenthal, white-haired from her shocking years in the notorious Belsen concentration camp in Germany, said that her son George was murdered by the Germans. The 54-year-old woman wept with joy as she and her husband, Dr. Karl Rosenthal, an assistant rabbi of a Philadelphia congregation, were reunited after six years.

Another refugee, Mrs. Leonardo Partos, 70, a native of Hungary, told her family at the pier of severe beatings she suffered during eight months at the infamous prison camp. A third woman and two physicians were among the passengers seeking a new life in America.

It takes lots of diamonds to fight a war. Production plants of the United States alone used more than a ton of them in a single year in various types of cutting tools.

COUNTRYSIDE RED CROSS MEETS

Countryside Red Cross members spent Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. W. Lockley, Ne-shannock Falls road, making articles for layettes which are nearly complete. Twelve members and one guest were present.

Mrs. Cecelia Herbst will entertain the group at a Valentine party at her home on February 6, when each guest is to bring a Valentine for the box. Stunts suitable for a Valentine party will be very welcome.

If any two places or peoples are located on opposite sides of the earth from each other, and are so situated that a straight line can be drawn through the center of the earth from one to the other, they are called the antipodes of each other. It is often, but erroneously supposed that China is the antipodes of the United States; however, the true antipodes of this country is a region in the Indian ocean west of Australia, no part of the North American continent having its antipodes in any land surface.

Germans' Skill, Ruthless Manner Is UNO Headache

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—(INS)—The dissimilarity of Germany's high degree of skill and its appalling lack of humanity is one of the hardest problems, the United Nations has to face in dealing with the people of that country, Dr. Wel-don H. Brandt, Pittsburgh metallurgist, today declared.

Dr. Brandt is one of a group of technical consultants just returned from working with the U. S. strategic and technical air forces in Germany. They have been organizing secret reports of German research for study by military authorities and American industry.

Commenting on the incongruity of a huge aviation proving ground developed during the war, while nearby were the horrors of the Dachau concentration camp, Dr. Brandt declared:

"To me the close proximity of the two sights highlighted the question of punishment for the Germans—such a race, if no remedy be found, will always be dangerous."

In his opinion, Dr. Brandt considered that the German scientists did a thorough, competent job on all specific engineering problems, but their planning and management were far below the American calibre.

CARGO RECORD
NEW YORK.—(INS)—The equivalent of nearly 36,000 acres of grain were carried aboard the Col. J. M. Schoonmaker when she set a Great Lakes cargo record this season, reports Ships magazine. She carried 525,000 bushels in a single trip. Based on a yield of 18 bushels to the acre, that represents the total harvest of 29,200 acres—more than 45 square miles of land.

Market Situation Is Discussed By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1946, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

NEW YORK CITY, Jan. 11.—Is another severe break in stock market prices necessary? Perhaps some day, but not just now. Need the market go up to a peak as in 1929, and then come down with a crash? Certainly not. It is possible the "top" of the market could be a level plateau extending over months or perhaps years instead of a peak.

BABSON

Heretofore bull markets have culminated in peaks. Due to this fact, my friends here in Wall Street think this must always be true. But because of cheap money and the excellent work that the Securities & Exchange Commission is doing for small investors, my Wall Street friends may be mistaken. The top of the present bull market may consist of a leveling off process whereby stocks could continue to sell at their highs for some time.

Most of the business leaders are sore at Walter Reuther and the CIO crowd in his attempt to mix up wages with profits. I grant this is an entirely new departure. The typical capitalist doesn't like anything new—unless it changes the rules in his favor. But may not Reuther be a friend of the small investor by his prevention of abnormal profits and the sustaining of purchasing power?

Market Breaks Are Possible

This is not saying that a severe break in the stock market cannot come. It is very possible that the United States may get into a jam with Russia or some other country which could bring about World War III. Then there could be a collapse in city real estate and many industries, especially those in vulnerable cities near the sea coast. But with this there should be a scramble for self-sustaining small farms away from the evil effects of atomic bombs. Why people do not give more thought to the future is beyond me. Surely, the only truly safe "life insurance" is good mother earth. I have some for each of my grandchildren.

Perhaps a more likely reason for a market break would be a fear of Communism or Socialism. When people in this country are finally convinced that Europe is going Socialistic and that the cloud is constantly moving westward, investors will begin to sell. Banks, railroads, utilities, coal and oil stocks, and the stocks of other large industrialists are now being "nationalized" in England and Europe will be liquidated first. Then there would be no buyers for these stocks, prices could crumble quickly, and the entire market could severely decline.

Stabilization or Destruction?

But eliminating the above fears, it is very possible, with the present money situation, aided by the S.E.C. and the CIO, that the stock market may be stabilized at a high level for a few years, as it stabilized at a low level from December, 1933, to December, 1942. Mind you, I am not guaranteeing anything excepting that conditions today are different from ever before. Either we are moving into a more stable world or else a large percentage of our present world is going to be wiped out. With atomic energy facing us, there can be no half-way ground.

But who created this atomic energy? We know that the answer is "God created it"; in fact, it may even be a manifestation of God. If so, it has unlimited possibilities for good—for making a healthier, happier and more prosperous world. Hence I believe that atomic energy may bring about the spiritual awakening which this old world so much needs. If so, this discovery alone will be well worth the entire cost of World War II—both in lives and property. Market breaks seem very small matters to me compared with these truly magnificent possibilities.

Prohibit Further Honolulu Protest Meetings By Marines

HONOLULU, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Marines in the Honolulu area were forbidden today to stage further protest meetings on demobilization as army men prepared to send another formal protest to Washington following their latest mass meeting.

Lt. Gen. Roy S. Geiger, Pacific marine commander, said men under his command are forbidden to hold a mass meeting "today or at any other time."

Answering a request for permission to hold protest meetings, Geiger said the "Marines' standard procedure in complaints is for the men to come individually to unit or company commanders. There is no need for mass meetings."

Geiger further said his men are forbidden to take part in any assembly or meeting either on or off the marine station other than military formations and religious and recreational assemblies.

The army's latest protest meeting was held last night when 10,000 soldiers massed at Schofield barracks to hear GI speakers sum up earlier grievances on slow demobilization.

Wampum Girl In Pin-Up Picture At Utah Air Base

Proving that this section of the country has its own aspirants for the pin-up galleries, The News received an attractive picture of Mary Lou Book of Wampum today, whose charms grace the month of August on the calendar in the "Hillfielder," the official publication of the Ogden, Utah, Air Technical Service command.

Miss Book, who is just 20 years in one of the warehouses in the supply division on the field, a job she has held for two months. She was recently transferred from army ordnance.

HOUSING POLICY
ASKED IN STATE

State Association Of Housing Officials Asks Legislation For Permanent Policy

HARRISBURG, Jan. 11.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Association of Housing officials planned today to ask the state's congressmen to support legislation designed to establish "a permanent housing policy" for the nation.

The organization's legislative committee, headed by Edward J. Leonard of Pittsburgh, met yesterday at Harrisburg and adopted a resolution requesting federal agencies to relax requirements that municipalities provide complete utility services at temporary housing projects.

Under the Wagner-Elender-Taft proposal, the U. S. would insure up to 90 per cent of loans obtained by private builders and grant financial aid to local housing authorities, a committee spokesman said.

Passage of the measure, which would authorize construction on the insured mortgage plan, would help alleviate the present housing shortage by stimulating the building of new units, he added.

In order to provide some relief until large-scale construction may begin, committee members believed that communities should be able to obtain permission from the federal government to build temporary housing projects without constructing streets and complete utilities.

The committee claimed that federal restrictions on streets and utilities should be relaxed "so that available houses may be put into immediate use without seeking to raise the funds necessary to meet federal requirements for site preparations."

"The government is trying to drive too hard a bargain with the smallest communities," committee members said. "We ask that red tape be cut by both congress and federal agencies and that they get these housing projects started."

In addition to Leonard, others who attended the meeting were W. H. Burkhard of Johnstown, Frank Palmer of Brentwood, James B. Kelly of Philadelphia and A. C. Edgecombe of Beaver Falls.

Drunken Drivers
Highway Menace

Drivers Who Take One Or Two Drinks Worse Than Drunken Drivers, WCTU Says

EVANSTON, Ill., Jan. 11.—(INS)—The tenth annual round table on narcotics, sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, today condemned drivers who have had "only one or two drinks" as a greater highway menace than the drunken driver.

Director Estelle Bozeman of the department of scientific temperance instruction said state licensing authorities will be asked to include a warning with each license pointing out the effects of alcohol on functions essential to careful and safe driving. She said:

"Condemnation of the drunken driver; that is, drivers who drink heavily and attempt to drive, has become universal. Public opinion and law enforcement have decreased the number of these on highways.

Drivers having one or two drinks have become the major menace." She said one-fourth of the nation's fatal automobile accidents involve drivers or pedestrians who have been drinking.

Ex-G. I. Escapes Trials Of Others On Ides Of March

Most Servicemen Have No Income Tax Worries; Advisors Help Those Who Do

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Ex-G. I. Joes may be having a tough time coping with housing, clothing and other homefront shortages, but the bulk of current discharges—thanks to Uncle Sam—won't have to battle the ideo of march with their fellow civilians.

Internal Revenue Collector Francis R. Smith said today that special sections of 1942 advisers are available at district offices in the state to aid veterans who may have income tax problems, but enlisted men in the main will not have to worry at all.

War Service Pay Exempt

Smith explained that all war service pay of enlisted men from 1941 on is exempt or until such time as the president proclaims the war's end. In addition, they are entitled to a three year extension on pre-service earned income in 1940 and 1941 if the tax fell due after their induction.

Smith said no returns from G. I.'s are necessary if their sole income was active service pay. He added that the enlisted man has until Dec. 31, 1946, to claim credit or refund on 1941 and 1942 overpayments on account of the retroactive extension. Ordinary warrant officers, he pointed out, are classified as enlisted men.

District Office To Aid

Veterans who believe they have income tax problems, Smith stated, should communicate with their district office of internal revenue where they will be supplied with information.

Pamphlets have been printed with a view to answering all questions which they might have, he said.

Smith asserted that a large volume of queries has been received concerning commissioned officers who came from the ranks. Such men, he stated, pay no tax and file no returns on service pay earned as enlisted men prior to receiving commission. Compensation of enlisted men while at officers' cadet school is exempt, he added.

The Philadelphia district collector also explained that no interest is collected on tax on service pay or any attributable to pre-service earned income if payments are made within the extended period of approximately three years.

The three district offices in Pennsylvania are located at Pittsburgh, Scranton and Philadelphia.

Portraits Presented

EASTON, Pa., Jan. 11.—(INS)—Portraits of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln have been presented to Lafayette college as additions to the school's gallery of figures prominent in the growth of the United States.

The portraits were presented by Allan P. Kirby of Morristown, N. J., and are on exhibit in Kirby hall of civil rights, a gift to the college by Kirby's father, the late Fred M. Kirby.

Mesmerism got its name from P. A. Mesmer, who was a pioneer hypnotist.

Strike Plans Of C.I.O. Steel Workers Pushed In District

Union Leaders Douse With Cold Water Optimism Over Negotiations Resumption

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Western Pennsylvania CIO United Steel Workers today forged relentlessly forward with their threatened strike plans, despite 11th hour negotiations toward a pay raise for more than 700,000 of their members throughout the nation.

Steel city union leaders were quick to douse with cold water any ray of optimism engendered by the New York meetings between Philip Murray and top officials of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

Joseph Goney, director of the union's District 17, disclosed that he and all the remainder of the steelworkers' 37 district directors had been told to "stand by" near telephones between now and the Sunday midnight deadline set for the strike of the nation's heaviest industry.

Since the strike program already has been set, optimists viewed the orders as a possible break in an otherwise gloomy situation and an indication that the strike might be called off suddenly as a result of the New York conclave.

Goney himself, however, simply said:

"Just what the message means, I don't know."

Other union officials in the nation's steel capital were quite pessimistic, the general trend of opinion being:

"So far as we can see, there is still nothing to change our plans. In other words, the strike is on."

The Plaingrove Grange met at the hall on Tuesday evening. A turkey dinner was served at seven. After the dinner there was installation of officers. Audley Boak of Princeton installed the new officers. He was assisted by Mrs. Nora Heckathorne, Mrs. Jean Johnson, Mrs. Betty Rodgers and Clyde McCommons. Mrs. Gladys Neely was pianist. The meeting closed by the usual signs of the order.

The Plaingrove Reading Circle will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Glenn Friday evening, January 11. Mr. and Mrs. James Pollock and son of Sharon were visitors in Plaingrove on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Patterson and Kenny were dinner guests of Mrs. Jack Partridge of Ellwood City on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Patterson were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Boak of Princeton.

The annual dinner of the Presbyterian church was held at the church Monday. The dinner was held at the noon hour.

Friends were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. John Connell of near New Castle. She was a former resident of this community for several years.

Miss Edwards of the Plaingrove school has been absent several days on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Minor and Evalene and Mrs. Jean Johnson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Minor of Grove City Sunday.

The basketball team of Plaingrove motored to Slippery Rock on Tuesday evening. The Slippery Rock team came out victorious.

Yellow-Green Heaps In Back Yards Once Were Christmas Trees

Once decked in fragile glory of colored ornaments and silver icicles, and lighted with the few remaining Christmas lights which the family possessed, the Christmas tree now lies in a forlorn heap on a brush pile in the back yard, or is still cluttering up the front porch because no one has had time to drag it around to the rear of the house.

Anemic-looking yellow-green branches can be seen up and down any street or alley as the aftermath of a big holiday, like the headache after New Year's Eve. Judging by what has happened in previous years, a few of the trees will be carried off in trash trucks, but most of them will be, as they are lying now, until the spring comes and the back-yard gardeners go on a bonfire-building spree. A few other neighbors have already chopped theirs up and used the pieces in the fireplace.

Some other trees, however, are still in the house. They can be seen through the windows at night, with the lights still shining on the almost-bare branches, and the school children make bets about how long it will be till they are taken down. Although a few of these belong to the people who, every year, insist on keeping their trees up until well into the month of February, at least some of them are up because of a very important person who is expected home this month—the family's serviceman from overseas.

Schwellenbach May Recommend Seizure By U. S.

Labor Department Spokesman Says
Seizure Of Telephone Industry
May Be Asked

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(INS)—A labor department spokesman said today that Secretary Schwellenbach may recommend government seizure of the telephone industry as a result of the nation-wide walkout of employees.

The spokesman made his statement while Schwellenbach was at a meeting of the cabinet with President Truman.

The cabinet meeting was a regular Friday morning session, but observers were confident the telephone situation was a prime consideration.

Telephone communication was crippled throughout the nation when striking installation workers threw picket lines around regular phone exchanges. Operators and other employees refused to cross the picket line.

An attempt to settle the strike of Western Electric communications workers will be made in Washington at 4 p. m. today when Schwellenbach will meet with Ernest Weaver, president of the striking union and company officials.

It was believed that Schwellenbach would not make any move to take over the telephone industry until after his conference with Weaver. An order to take over the companies would come from the White House, after Schwellenbach has made a report to Mr. Truman.

Officers Reveal Hoax Perpetrated

Two months of intensive police work by the state police, the district attorney and sheriff's office have revealed the fact that at least one of the attacks reported upon a young woman of Meshanock township, and subsequent threatening letters, were a hoax.

District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson stated today that the young woman in question whose name is withheld, had confessed to the state police and Sheriff Frank L. Coen that she had written the threatening letters herself. In the matter of the seizure reported on November 14 on the back porch of her home she was vague and said "it might have happened."

Two special deputy sheriffs have patrolled the district for two months at a cost to the county of about $300 and for several nights posses of armed citizens patrolled the district.

The young woman in question is apparently emotionally disturbed and has recently been under the care of a physician. No action will be taken against her the district attorney said.

Renew Demands On Ford Company For Wage Increases

DETROIT, Jan. 11.—(INS)—The United Automobile Workers, CIO, today renewed discussions of their demands for 30 per cent wage increases with the Ford Motor company.

The union cause was strengthened by a contract with the Kaiser-Frazer Corporation, which the UAW-CIO said was equivalent to 30 per cent increases, and President Truman's fact-finding board recommendation of 17 1/2 per cent raises for General Motors Corporation strikers.

The 30 per cent issue was discussed for the first time yesterday with Ford, when negotiations on a new contract resumed after a holiday recess. Neither company nor union would comment on the meeting, beyond stating that "wages were considered seriously for the first time."

Negotiations with the Chrysler extension terms.

HEAVY DAIRY DEMANDS
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—(INS)—The demand for dairy products will exceed production by approximately 10 million pounds, Benjamin F. Castle, president of the Milk Industry Foundation, today maintained.

Castle, speaking at the National Dairy Council meeting, also deplored the continued subsidization of the milk industry by the government.

Unusual Twist To Pittsburgh Case

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—(INS)—The usual husband-in-the-service, wife-at-home story took a new twist in Pittsburgh—this time in reverse. Mrs. Isabelle Stewart of Murfreesville served six months in the WACs while her deferred husband, James M. Stewart, 27, stayed at home working and taking care of their two children.

Discharged to help her father who became ill, Mrs. Stewart sued her husband for the support of the children. She charged that Stewart didn't answer her letters while was in the service, so she discontinued writing him.

After much discussion, Judge L. Kenneth Harkins ordered Stewart to pay $50 for the children's support, but nothing for Mrs. Stewart—she earns 83 cents an hour, while her husband earns 78 cents.

Sailor Dies In Railroad Station

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Harry L. Miller, 21-year-old Pittsburgh sailor, died mysteriously today in the Pennsylvania railroad station in Pittsburgh just a few minutes before he was to leave for the Philadelphia Naval hospital.

Commander E. K. Keckler of the Pittsburgh recruiting division, said that Miller was going to the hospital for observation of a "puzzling" nervous condition.

Jack A. Stockman Leaves Navy Duties

Describes Quaint Customs Practiced By Natives On Island Of Okinawa During Visit

Jack A. Stockman, MM 3-c, has received an honorable discharge from the Navy at Sampson, N. Y., after completing 36 months service in that branch.

Stationed on the U.S.S. Planter, the flagship for a fleet of minesweepers, Stockman shipped from Norfolk, Va., and sailed through the Panama Canal, stopping at 15 different ports on his overseas trip.

Jack saw the terrific typhoons at Okinawa and gave an insight to the customs on the island. Describing the terrain, he stated that the island was very mountainous and when death came to the natives, the remains were put in caves until the flesh decayed, then the bones were put in large urns, with the oldest daughter in the family polishing them with whiskey until they are a gleaming white.

Seaman Stockman continued that the mode of living is very uncivilized and that many times he went ashore and distributed chewing gum among the children.

Shipping from Okinawa, December 1, he arrived in Portland, Ore., December 17, and proceeded to his wife at 414 Garfield avenue.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stockman of the Harbor.

Picket In Front Of Phone Office

A picket, walking post in front of the Bell Telephone Exchange and business office on South Mercer street, was the only reminder to local folks of the fact that there is a nation-wide strike of communications installation workers.

The telephone operators belong to a different union than the communications and maintenance employees, and have no grievance with the company. It is stated Up to noon today they had received no orders here not to cross the picket line established in front of the building and were continuing to man the switch-board here under normal conditions.

AROUND CITY HALL

Appointive officers in various city departments are compiling reports covering 1945 activities for publication in the annual report. Chief of Police R. D. Hanna was unable, because of press of business here, to go to Beaver yesterday to determine if men held there for robbery were concerned in the Kantz store holdup here in December.

Mrs. David Taylor reported Mr. Taylor parked his car in front of 229 East Boyles avenue last night and someone rifled the car which was the second time it was robbed.

C. Ed. Brown, city clerk, was at his office for an hour today following a siege of illness. Mayor John F. Haven and Councilmen J. D. Alexander, D. O. Davies, James Gibson and A. A. Hoyland today surveyed the East Side route to ascertain if there were, as complained by the company, stops which could be eliminated and faster service given.

As yet the city council has not arranged to ask for bids for the sale of the present City building. Reed Reed and Lee Lane, brothers-in-law and colored, were arrested last night for fighting in Scioto street and their $10 forfeits were confiscated by the mayor when they failed to appear in court today.

James Gibson, head of the city streets department, reported today the mild weather of recent days has caused frost to work out leaving some dirt streets in bad condition, hence the department employees are very busy trying to keep them passable.

John Peterman, Beaver Falls, was arrested yesterday for peddling first aid bands without having paid for a city license to do so. He placed a cash bond of $10 for appearance but failed to stand trial today. The bond was forfeited.

In 1929, the coast to coast air fare was cut from $400 to $259.50.

HEALTH LESSON

DENVER. (INS)—Four white rats are doing a better job of teaching than all of mother's sermons about correct eating. For eight weeks, a group of eighth grade students in Denver have fed "Healthy" and "Unhealthy" a proper diet including vegetables, fruit, milk powder and all the other essentials.
Two other rodents received only one basic meal and soda crackers. The students found the two well-fed rats weighed twice as much as the others at the end of the experiment.

MANAGEMENT VITAL TO POULTRYMEN IN 1946

Efficiency of operation is the only way the poultryman can meet his problems at any time. But the variable uncertainties facing poultrymen in 1946 will place even more importance on good management.

Since the chicken is the basis of business, it is important to cater to her well-being and comfort. This is closely tied in with the ease and speed in which the work is done efficiently. Following are some essentials to a sound poultry business:

1. Continuous close culling to market oil hens and pullets when they have a greater value for meat than for egg production.
2. Greater use of labor-saving practices and devices that will help get the work done well.

3. More chicks started in cold weather to supply more eggs when prices are highest and to help reduce the effect of the usual spring glut in production.

4. Better ranges to reduce cash costs in growing out pullets and to lower hazards which may cause losses by death.

5. Elimination of all causes of waste.

6. Production of more high quality eggs through better care and more well-finished, nicely dressed meat birds.

7. Better housing facilities by remodeling present quarters for poultry.
